This large, hand-painted porcelain plate was sculpted in Germany, circa 1880. The painted ceramic platter depicts the portrait of a man dressed in ornate period clothing. The antique is framed with a round, pewter frame that is embellished with alternating medallions and repoussé foliate decoration with beaded borders. The unique platter shows beautiful painted detail and is in excellent condition with a rich patina. Measure: Diameter 17.5". SKU: 141-241
