This antique oriental style rug would make a great addition to any den, living room, or dining room. Hand knotted in Agra India circa 1920, the area rug features several intricate borders, the largest featuring floral and foliage motifs throughout. The center showcases a rich but light green color with blooming flowers connected by vines, and two opposing palmates. The unique patterns will bring a pop of color to any space. The carpet is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns rich colors in the beige, green, yellow, and red palette. Agra rugs, marvels in the world of Persian-style textiles, are renowned for their opulent designs and captivating color palette. Originating from the vibrant looms of India, these masterpieces trace their legacy back to the illustrious era of the Mughal Empire during the 16th century. 154" x 132"
