Place your keys or decorate an entry table or console with this luminous rock crystal bowl. Crafted in Brazil, the hand-carved dish features a rounded smooth form that highlights the natural clarity and veining of the quartz. The circular basin displays a beautifully patinated clear finish with delicate internal inclusions and subtle mineral striations, allowing the piece to shimmer and catch the light from every angle. Likely intended as a decorative bowl, vide poche, or spiritual vessel, this sculptural object is both functional and elemental—ideal for holding small items or simply admired as a natural work of art. Both decorative and functional, it works elegantly as a dining table centerpiece, an accent on a sideboard, or a refined catchall on a hallway console. In excellent condition commensurate with age and use, this contemporary organic-form bowl brings a sense of calm and grounded elegance to any interior setting, from modern and minimalist to wabi-sabi inspired design. Crafted from a single piece of natural quartz crystal, it embodies timeless refinement and enduring beauty. 7.25 Diameter x 3.75"H
