Categories: Trays, Plates & Platters

Decorate a wall with this antique and colorful barbotine platter; crafted in Italy, circa 1920, the large charger features a young man in the centre holding a painting brush and his palette, with an eagle standing on the side. The ceramic plate is decorated with floral and leaf motifs around the perimeter. The wall piece is in excellent condition with rich patinated colors in the yellow, blue and green palette. Brass plate hanger included for easy installation. Measures: 17" diameter.
