This large, antique bonnetiere from the Perigord region of France, circa 1750 would make a beautiful addition to any living room or bedroom. The single door armoire features diamond shapes geometric designs on the front and both sides, a pair of barley twist columns on either side and a single drawer across the bottom finished with bun feet. Last but not least, the cabinet is in working condition and has a wonderful, old key included! Measures: 42" W x 25" D x 88" H.
