Decorate a mantel or a buffet with this elegant antique four-arm candelabra. Crafted in southern France circa 1780, the large forged piece stands on an octagonal base over a central turned stem, and features four scrolled arms decorated with acanthus leaves and dressed with circular bobeches. The Louis XIV candelabra is in excellent condition with a rich patinated polished black and silver steel finish. The light can be electrified if needed. 28 pounds. Measures: 21"W x 21"D x 23.5"H.
