Elevate a powder room or entryway with this elegant antique Louis Philippe mirror, crafted in France circa 1870. The arched frame features the classic restrained lines of the period, enriched by a sophisticated two-tone finish, matte black with hand-applied gilt foliate scrollwork that adds depth and visual contrast. The mirror retains its original mercury glass, showing light foxing that enhances its authentic antique character. The original back is panel-constructed in wood and fitted with two new hooks for secure hanging. Measuring 32 inches wide by 48 inches high and 1.75 inches deep, this refined 19th-century mirror brings understated glamour and timeless French style to a powder room, hallway, or over a console. Good condition commensurate with age and use. Scratch on the mirror. (See detailed images).
