Elegant and versatile, this antique French Louis Philippe mirror was crafted circa 1870 and features a classic giltwood frame with clean, understated lines. The nearly square silhouette is accentuated by a vertical stripe motif on the outer molding and a refined beaded trim along the inner border, characteristic of the restrained sophistication of the Louis Philippe style. The mirror retains its original mercury-style glass with subtle foxing, adding visual depth and a sense of authentic age. The back shows traditional 19th-century panel construction and an early wire hanger, allowing the piece to be displayed vertically or horizontally depending on your space. Measuring 28.5 inches wide by 32 inches high, this antique mirror is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use. Ideal for a powder room, or entryway, it brings timeless elegance to any setting.
