Decorate a breakfast room with this refined French dining suite. Crafted circa 1980 and built from solid oak, the set includes a round Louis XV-style table and six matching upholstered chairs. The 59.25-inch diameter tabletop showcases a parquet-style surface arranged in an elegant chevron pattern, resting on a boldly carved baluster pedestal with gadrooned lobes and a shaped, tiered plinth. The light oak finish retains a warm, gently aged patina that accentuates the carved detailing while maintaining a neutral tone ideal for a range of interiors. Each of the six chairs features a solid wood frame with cabriole legs, acanthus-carved knees, and scalloped aprons. The high arched backs and cushioned seats are upholstered in a muted salmon fabric and trimmed with brass nailheads, offering both comfort and a classic silhouette. Each chair measures 21.5” wide by 24” deep by 45” high, with a seat height of 19.5”. The set is in very good vintage condition with minor surface wear consistent with age and use. A graceful ensemble that brings timeless French elegance to any dining room, breakfast nook, or country kitchen.
