Decorate a covered patio, or sun room with this elegant antique iron and walnut gueridon table. Crafted in England circa 1880, the pub table stands on three cabriole legs ending with paw feet decorated with female figures at the shoulder; the legs are joined together with a heavily decorated bottom shelf. The intricate scalloped apron features floral and mask face motifs, and the top is dressed with a circular wooden surface. The bistrot table is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich polished black and silver steel finish and walnut patinated top. Measures: 23" diameter 27" height.
