Bring colorful charm and whimsical craftsmanship to a tabletop or console with this elegant antique barbotine jardinière from France. Crafted circa 1880, the rectangular porcelain cachepot is designed in the form of a woven basket, complete with twisted rope-form borders, loop handles, and a faux bois base raised on small feet. The exterior is richly embellished with applied floral garlands featuring hand-painted roses, blossoms, buds, and lush green foliage in vibrant shades of pink, blue, purple, and green. The open lattice weave design adds remarkable depth and texture, showcasing the sculptural artistry associated with fine French barbotine ceramics of the late 19th century. The hand-painted surface is finished in glossy glaze work throughout, further enhancing the lively floral decoration and naturalistic details. Versatile in use, this antique porcelain basket could serve as a jardinière, centerpiece, fruit basket, or decorative cachepot. The piece is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with rich colors and beautiful overall presentation. Dimensions: 16.5”W x 12”D x 6.5”H
