Decorate a bathroom or a walking closet with this collection of antique "Mode de Paris" fashion prints. Crafted in France during the Napoleon III period from 1889-1892, each colorful print is set in a gilt wooden frame with protective glass; each frame called "Le Moniteur de la Mode", features women's elegance in different toilette and dresses. All five prints are in very good condition commensurate with age and use, with pastel colors. They all come from the private collection of a French senator. Measures: 9.75" W x 13" H.
