Keep your wine or beer chilled in style with this elegant round bowl; crafted in Northern France circa 1870 and originally used for homemade jelly, the circular copper bowl with rounded rim and small round side handles attached with rivets. The dish is in excellent condition with a rich patinated and polished brass finish inside and out. This decorative bottle cooler is both a beautiful and practical way to keep your favorite champagne cool while sitting on a bar surface; it could also be used as a punch or fruit bowl, or display on kitchen cabinets top.
