This antique planter, crafted in northern France circa 1880, exudes a wonderful charm and character. The bucket, with its gracefully rounded, bulbous body, is crafted from a harmonious blend of brass and copper. Two intricately cast lion's head motifs adorn the sides, exuding a sense of regal sophistication and timeless charm. The lightly hammered copper finish adds a subtle texture, enhancing its rustic elegance and vintage appeal. Three finely crafted brass bands encircle the body, creating a striking visual contrast. Versatile and functional, this planter can be repurposed as a waste basket, a decorative storage container, or as a statement jardinière for plants. The jardinière is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich patinated finish. Measures: 13.75" x 12" x 9.25"H
