Crafted in the Burgundy region of France circa 1880, this elegant antique Louis Philippe mirror features the classic clean-lined silhouette with softly rounded corners that defines the period. The substantial rectangular frame is finished in a luminous silver leaf, enhanced by a subtle engraved geometric motif that creates a refined two-tone effect across the surface.

The mirror retains its original wood backing and presents beautifully with gentle wear to the silvered finish, adding depth and authenticity to the overall patina. The bright yet time-softened surface reflects light beautifully, making it an excellent choice for opening up a space while maintaining a sophisticated, understated presence.

Versatile in scale and design, this antique mirror works effortlessly above a mantel, in an entry hall, or in a powder room flanked by sconces. It is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and has been fitted with new hooks on the back for secure and easy installation.
