Crafted in France circa 1870, this elegant farmhouse table is a fine example of Louis Philippe period craftsmanship. Built of solid chestnut and oak, the large oval top is assembled with traditional pegged joinery and rests on four gracefully tapered legs, creating a refined yet sturdy silhouette. A single drawer is set discreetly into the apron, providing convenient storage for linens or flatware. The richly grained surface showcases a warm honey-brown patina with timeworn texture and character, reflecting generations of use and care. Measuring 76 inches long by 55 inches wide and standing 31 inches high, the table comfortably seats six to eight guests, ideal for everyday family dining or relaxed entertaining. Sturdy, functional, and full of authentic provincial charm, this antique Louis Philippe table is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use. Its understated lines and natural finish make it an effortless addition to both rustic and contemporary interiors. Measures: 76" W x 55" D x 31" H.
