This elegant antique Louis Philippe giltwood mirror brings warmth, reflection, and classic French character to a hallway, powder room, bedroom, or living room. Crafted in France circa 1870, the mirror features the classic Louis Philippe rounded rectangular form with softly curved upper corners and a molded frame embellished with delicate engraved floral and foliate motifs throughout. The frame is finished in beautiful gold leaf, showing a warm, rich gilt patina with subtle age wear that gives the piece depth and character.

The mirror plate is framed by a refined inner molding that enhances the clean, timeless silhouette of the piece. The back wood panel and hanging wire are later additions, making the mirror ready to place vertically on a wall or above a mantel, console, or commode.

The mirror is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with a wonderful gold leaf finish and light surface wear consistent with a 19th Century antique piece.
