A refined antique French wall mirror, featuring a classic rectangular form with gently rounded upper corners and a richly carved frame finished in warm gold leaf. The frame is adorned with delicate floral and foliate motifs at each corner, characteristic of the understated elegance of the Louis Philippe period. The mirror retains its original wood backing and early mercury glass, which displays subtle silvering consistent with age and adds to its antique charm. A handwritten inscription and remnants of an old inventory label are visible on the reverse, suggesting prior collection history. Measuring 25.5 inches wide by 35 inches high and 1.5 inches deep, the mirror is fitted with hanging hardware and may be displayed either vertically or horizontally. Its versatile proportions make it ideal for use in a powder room, above a mantel, or as a decorative accent in a hallway or bedroom. Very good condition commensurate with age and use. Small scratch on the glass (see detailed images).
