Enhance a powder room or hallway with this charming petite antique silvered mirror. Crafted in France circa 1870, the frame features the characteristic rounded top corners and clean, molded profile of the period, but with added detail, a prominent beaded inner trim that lends a subtle architectural edge. The surface is finished in a soft silver leaf with faint cross-hatched tooling, providing gentle contrast and depth while remaining neutral enough to blend into a variety of interior styles. The mirror plate is original, set into its period frame and backed with its authentic 19th-century wood and paper paneling, which remains intact and structurally sound. Measuring 19 inches wide by 23.75 inches high, this petite mirror is ideal for a powder room, dressing nook, or hallway vignette. Excellent condition commensurate with age and use. New hanging device in the back.
