Categories: Commodes & Chest of Drawers

This elegant antique French commode was crafted during the Louis Philippe period, circa 1860. The piece is built of richly figured walnut, displaying a warm and lustrous patina adorned with refined brass drawer pulls, offering both visual harmony and generous storage. The clean, architectural lines exemplify the Louis Philippe aesthetic, which favored balanced proportions and understated elegance. The commode is topped with a white marble surface finished with a softly rounded edge and displaying subtle natural veining consistent with age. Raised on simple bracket feet, it retains a warm, rich walnut finish throughout and is in excellent condition with wear commensurate with age and use. This antique chest would serve beautifully in a bedroom, entry hall, or living space, bringing timeless French sophistication to both traditional and transitional interiors. Dimensions: 46"W x 19.75"D x 37.75"H
