This antique French Louis XIII side table was crafted circa 1870 and is constructed in solid oak. The square top features a carved molded edge with scrolling foliate decoration and retains a warm, time-softened patina. The table stands on four barley twist legs, a defining Louis XIII feature, joined by two square shelves that provide added stability and usable surface space. Strong proportions and a compact footprint make it practical as a side table, lamp table, or accent table. Solid, well balanced, and visually grounded, this antique table works easily in traditional, European country, or transitional interiors. The table is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use. Dimensions: 17.5"W x 17.5"D x 30.25"H
