Categories: Corner Pieces, Confituriers & Other Cabinets

Hand crafted in Normandy, northern France circa 1870, and built in two sections, the antique oak and glass cabinet stands on a thick bottom plinth, and dressed at the pediment with a large carved decorative cornice. Each section features side glass panels and dressed with a central glass door decorated with hand carved floral and leaf motifs, opening to adjustable shelving (one glass shelf in each cabinet, but could accommodate 3 or 4). The elegant tall and narrow vitrine is in excellent condition with a rich walnut patina; use this 8 foot buffet-deux-corps in a dining room or den to display your favorite majolica or faience collection! One key included. Measures: 32"W x 21.5"D x 99"H.
