Crafted in France circa 1850, the antique grey painted sideboard stands on square legs over a straight and carved apron. The traditional enfilade features four doors across the front; each door with inset panel, is decorated with floral medallions in each corner. The inside reveals shelving for additional storage. The long buffet is further embellished with four decorative vertical spline columns. The surface is topped with a hand painted faux marble slab. The Classic narrow cabinet has straight lines and is in excellent condition with a rich rubbed patinated painted finish in a neutral gray and off-white palette. All original locks and keys included. Use this versatile and practical buffet as a serving piece in a dining room. Measures: 101.5" W x 22" D x 34.5" H.
