This antique French Louis XV style club armchair, crafted circa 1870, features a generous, deeply comfortable form with wide rounded arms and a pitched back crowned by a scalloped crest. The carved wood frame stands on scrolled feet over a scalloped apron and retains a soft white washed painted finish accented with touches of gilt. The chair is upholstered in a warm tan fabric decorated with classic Fleur-de-Lys motifs and finished with decorative brass nailhead trim along the lower rail. A loose down seat cushion provides excellent comfort and inviting depth, making the chair ideal for everyday use as well as display. Well suited for a study, library, or living room, this antique French club armchair offers both comfort and strong decorative presence. The chair is in excellent commensurate with age and use, with light wear consistent with its history. Measures: 37" W x 38" D x 34" H. Seat Height: 20.5"H
