This elegant mirror was created in France, circa 1890. Rectangular in shape, the large mirror can be hang vertically or horizontally; the frame features exquisite hand carved floral decor, and is embellished with a cartouche shell motif in each corner. The important mirror dressed with a new glass, is in excellent condition with a rich gilt finish throughout; versatile, it would make a statement of beauty in a powder room, on top of a buffet in a dining room, or above a commode in an entry. Measures: 32.5" W x 45.5" H.
