Decorate a wall with this elegant antique French engraving, beautifully presented in an ornate giltwood frame, crafted circa 1880. The romantic composition titled "Le Chiffre d'Amour" depicts a refined pastoral scene of a young woman carving initials into a tree while her loyal dog looks on, rendered in soft tones inspired by 18th-century Rococo imagery. The artwork is housed in a richly carved Louis XV style frame adorned with scrolling acanthus leaves, shell motifs, and pierced corner flourishes. The frame retains a warm and luminous gilt finish with a desirable aged patina, adding depth and authenticity. The engraving is further enhanced by a decorative lower cartouche with inscriptions and a central heraldic medallion.

This antique wall piece is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use. Ready to hang, it would make a charming addition to a bedroom, powder room, or sitting area, bringing timeless French romantic elegance to any interior.
