Decorate an entryway or a living room with this heavily carved antique center table. Crafted in Provence, France circa 1870 and richly carved, the large table stands on elegant cabriole legs embellished with floral motifs at the shoulder, and ending with hoof feet and acanthus leaves. The bombe and scalloped apron is decorated with an exquisite hand carved shell motif in the center, and flanked with pierced foliage and floral decor on all four sides. The large surface is dressed with a shaped and colorful variegated marble top in the black, grey, white and beige palette. The Rococo Louis XV style console table is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich bleached patinated finish. The Provencal center table has exquisite carvings and dressed with a beautiful and unusual stone top! A true one-of-a-kind! Measures: 50"W x 30.5"D x 32.25"H.
