Decorate a powder room, hallway, or bedroom with this elegant antique wall mirror. Crafted in France circa 1890, the oval frame is richly carved in the Louis XV taste and crowned with an ornate pierced crest embellished with scrolling acanthus leaves, floral motifs, and Rococo flourishes. The shaped surround is decorated with a continuous gadrooned pattern and delicate beaded molding that beautifully frames the reflective surface.

The mirror retains its beveled glass, adding depth and refinement while enhancing the quality of reflected light. The giltwood finish has developed a warm, luminous patina over time, highlighting the intricate carving and decorative details. The original wood backing remains in place, further supporting its authenticity and craftsmanship.

Versatile in scale and timeless in design, this antique French mirror would make an elegant accent above a console, chest, vanity, or mantel, bringing warmth and classic Louis XV character to both traditional and transitional interiors. The piece is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with minor wear consistent with its history.
