Decorate a hunting lodge with this fine antique umbrella or cane stand, crafted in France, circa 1870, the freestanding stand features a hunting theme including a horn at the top, a gun and a rabbit on the stem, and duck, partridge, foliage, and dog decor at the base. The stand sits on four small feet shaped as acanthus leaves. The piece is in excellent condition with wonderful, ornate details in high relief and a rich patinated bronze finish. Place this stand near an entryway, or in a mudroom to catch umbrellas or display a couple of guns. Measures: 13" W x 10" D x 23" H.
