An atmospheric landscape and refined black-and-gold accents give this antique cache pot an elegant decorative presence. Crafted in France circa 1870 during the Napoleon III period, the rounded Porcelaine de Paris vessel rests on a contrasting black socle base and is finished with a matching upper rim, both outlined with delicate gilt bands.

The porcelain body is hand-painted with a continuous pastoral scene rendered in soft shades of blue, green, ochre, and brown. One side depicts a picturesque country cottage beneath tall trees, with a solitary figure walking nearby. The landscape continues around the reverse with calm water, distant buildings, sailboats, and a softly defined horizon, providing visual interest from every angle. Subtle atmospheric shading creates a pleasing sense of depth and tranquility.

The white-glazed interior retains a central drainage hole, allowing the vessel to be used as a jardinière or planter. Generously scaled, it would also make an attractive centerpiece or decorative cache pot on a console, mantel, dining table, or windowsill.

The antique Porcelaine de Paris cache pot is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with minor wear to the gilt decoration consistent with its history.

Dimensions: 8.5" diameter x 8.25" H.
