This small, elegant Napoleon III copper mirror was crafted in France, circa 1860. The antique wall hanging repousse piece features an ornate, heavily embellished pediment with a large carved shell and other decorative motifs. The central rectangular mirror is flanked by four small mirrors and then an outer frame. The overlay mirror is in excellent condition with its original beveled mercury glass and rich patinated finish. Measures: 12.75" W x 23" H.
