This colorful antique wall hanging clock was crafted in France circa 1870; oval in shape, the time keeper has a two-tone black and wood painted around the perimeter; it features colorful hand painted swan and flamingo motifs on the facade under the glass top. The clock mechanism, signed S. Rambe from Saint Martin en Haut, is in beautiful working order and has been checked out and cleaned by our service clock man. The clock is in excellent condition with a rich patinated painted finish. Pendulum and key included. Measure: 18.75" W x 24.25" H.
