Decorate an office or study's shelf with this elegant suite of antique putti statues. Crafted in France circa 1870, and made of iron, each musical cherub stands on a rectangular base, and plays a different musical instrument; violin, flute, sitar and tambourine. The four seasons cherubs are in excellent condition with the original patinated off white painted finish. A perfect collection for nooks or shelving fitting the classic musical theme. Measures: 11.5" H.
