Decorate a study or office with this elegant suite of antique black and white prints. Created in Paris France circa 1870 by Helio Catala Freres and edited by Charles Massin et Cie, each large artwork depicts the Chateau de Saint Aignan in the Loire Valley with different details regarding the castle. One print is titled "Vue d'Ensemble", another "Facade sur la Terrasse", the next one "Details d'Architecture" and the last one "Detail de l'Escalier". The elegant set is in excellent condition, and each print is carefully set in a gold leaf frame and protected with glass. 25.75"W x 21"H
