Entertain guests or elevate a study or game room with this elegant antique game box. Crafted in France circa 1890, the rectangular hinged case is built of walnut and decorated with marquetry inlay forming a traditional checkered pattern on the exterior lid. When opened, the interior reveals a green felt backgammon board with finely drawn linear motifs. The set is complete with 30 round wooden pieces, two leather dice cups, a pair of bone dice, and the original handwritten paper describing the rules of the French game "Le Jeu de Jacquet." Both practical and decorative, this dual-purpose game set embodies the refined leisure pursuits of the late 19th century. It remains in excellent condition, showcasing rich patinated walnut tones and dovetailed joinery at the corners. A charming and functional addition to any library, study, or collector's cabinet. Measures: 20.75" W x 14.25" D (closed) and 20.75" W x 28.5" D (open) x 3.25" H.
