Set in the original carved giltwood frame, the large antique painting was created in Hungary, circa 1897; the art work depicts a traditional interior scene with people and child eating and interacting with each other. The subject matter is well done with wonderful details and bright colors. The painting is signed in the lower right corner and dated 1897, but the signature is unreadable. Hungarian stamp in the back for further authentication. Measures: 36.75" W x 29.75" H.
