Place this antique Imari bowl on your entry buffet for a small dose of oriental design. Crafted in Japan, circa 1860, and round in shape, the exotic vide poche sits on an ornate gilt bronze stand. The shallow, ceramic bowl features hand painted floral decor with gilt accents, and is topped at the neck with decorative ormolu foliage mounts. The dish is in excellent condition with rich patinated bronze finish.
Measures: 9.5" diameter
5.5" height.
