

19TH CENTURY JAPANESE IMARI PORCELAIN BOWL ON LOUIS XV GILT BRONZE STAND

$1,075

SKU: 182-37
Stock: N/A
Categories: Vases, Jardinières, Planters & Centerpieces

Elevate a console or center table with this refined antique Imari bowl mounted on an ornate gilt bronze stand, crafted in Japan and France circa 1860. The shallow porcelain dish is beautifully hand painted in a classic Imari palette, featuring intricate floral and foliate motifs in rich iron red and deep cobalt blue, accented with delicate gilt highlights. The composition centers a stylized medallion, framed by scrolling patterns and botanical elements that bring movement and elegance to the piece.

The Japanese porcelain is set within an elaborate Louis XV style dore bronze mount, richly cast with openwork, scrolling acanthus details, and decorative side handles. The elevated pedestal base adds height and presence, creating a striking fusion of Eastern artistry and European decorative taste.

This antique decorative centerpiece is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with a beautifully aged gilt patina. Ideal as a vide-poche on an entry console, a centerpiece on a dining table, or a statement accent in a curated vignette.

Dimensions: 12.5”W x 10”D x 9”H.

© Country French Interiors