Decorate a dining or breakfast room with this elegant antique trestle table. Hand-carved in Spain circa 1880, the table features a striking single walnut plank top over six feet long, showcasing the natural grain and character of the wood. The wide rectangular surface is framed with decorative burl walnut trim, adding visual richness and contrast. The table is supported by carved ox yoke, inspired legs, joined by a thick forged iron stretcher with elegant scrollwork, both functional and ornamental in the Spanish Baroque tradition. The walnut surface displays a warm, timeworn patina with beautifully aged distress throughout. In excellent condition commensurate with age and use, this large and characterful table comfortably seats six to eight guests and would make a handsome focal point in a dining room, breakfast nook, or wine cellar.
