Decorate a wall with this whimsical set of four Italian carved candle sconces, crafted circa 1980. Each wall-mounted piece features an outstretched arm grasping a torch-form candle holder with central pricket, creating a playful and sculptural presentation.

The shaped backplates are richly carved with scrolling foliage and floral motifs, enhanced by a hand-painted polychrome finish in warm tones of red, green, brown, and gilt accents. The expressive design blends Renaissance revival inspiration with a bold Hollywood Regency flair.

The sconces are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with light wear to the painted surfaces; traces of old wax remain visible, attesting to prior use. For added versatility, they could be professionally wired for electricity. A striking choice for a hallway, bar, or rustic interior.
