This elegant Louis XVI-style vanity chair dates to the late 20th century and is inspired by classic antique French seating models of the 18th century. The carved wood frame features refined neoclassical lines with a gently curved barrel back, fluted legs, and subtle carved detailing at the joints, all hallmarks of the Louis XVI aesthetic. The chair retains a softly painted finish with light tonal variation that enhances the crisp carving without overpowering the form. Cane panels wrap the back and sides, adding texture and visual lightness while maintaining an architectural silhouette. A custom loose seat cushion, tailored in a muted plaid fabric, provides comfort and contrast against the painted frame and woven cane. Graceful and well proportioned, this chair is ideal for use at a vanity, dressing table, or as an accent piece in a bedroom or bath, blending easily into traditional, European country, or transitional interiors. The chair is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use. Dimensions: 22.5"W x 21"D x 31"H Seat Height: 20"H
