Hand-carved in northern Spain circa 1720, this exquisite antique cabinet showcases masterful craftsmanship and timeless elegance. Made from solid walnut, it features a rich, aged patina that enhances its character. The two doors are decorated with the original forged iron pulls and an escutcheon, highlighting the skilled blacksmithing techniques of the period. Both doors and sides are decorated with deeply carved geometric square raised panels, a hallmark of Spanish Baroque design. Inside, the cabinet reveals spacious shelving, offering storage for a variety of uses. The buffet is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich walnut patina. It serves as a stylish solution for concealing cable boxes and entertainment systems in a living room or it could even be used in a bedroom to store linens and bedding. Measures: 40"W x 26"D x 51"H.
