Capture the timeless beauty of the French coast with this antique Mont Saint-Michel painting, crafted in France circa 1910. Executed on board, the composition depicts the iconic abbey rising dramatically above the fortified island, with figures and grounded fishing boats animating the sandy foreground at low tide. The artist uses confident, textured brushwork and a soft, atmospheric palette of blue, taupe, and warm ochre tones to evoke the shifting light and coastal air of Normandy.

The scene is lively yet intimate, making it especially well-suited for a powder room, hallway niche, or layered gallery wall where character and narrative matter. The presence of small figures and working boats adds charm and scale, drawing the viewer into the composition.

The painting is housed in its original carved wood frame, richly finished in a warm gilt patina with foliate relief and beaded inner trim, offering a classic and elegant presentation.

The antique painting is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with light surface wear consistent with its age. The frame shows minor wear with a beautifully time-softened gilt finish.
