Entertain in style with this antique oak Tantalus and crystal decanter set; crafted in England, circa 1920, the liquor set is unique with nickel silver side mounts and its original ball faceted swivel locking mechanism with key, and embellished with a brass handle. Inside the Tantalus, you'll find three cut-glass decanters with pineapple shape stoppers, all resting on a raised rectangular molded edge base. This elegant liqueur set is in excellent condition with a rich walnut patina. Key included. Measures: 14" W x 5.5" D x 13" H.
