Keep jewelry, keepsakes, or other small valuables in this elegant antique cut-glass box. Crafted in France circa 1920 in the Baccarat style, the rectangular casket features thick, brilliantly faceted glass decorated with vertical fluting, geometric motifs, and deeply cut starburst designs. The fitted hinged lid is secured with a decorative brass rim and continuous hinge, providing both structural support and a warm metallic contrast to the sparkling clear glass. Opening the lid reveals a clean, spacious interior suitable for jewelry, trinkets, or personal accessories. The richly patterned underside displays two prominent star-cut panels framed by intricate geometric detailing. This versatile decorative box could also be placed in a master bathroom or powder room to hold cotton swabs, makeup-remover pads, or other small necessities. The box is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use.
