This unique, antique floor lamp was crafted in Northern France, circa 1920. Standing on three bun feet over a circular base embellished with hand carved foliage decor, this lamp features a barley twist stem over acanthus leaves, a round ledge surface in the center decorated with carved leaf motifs. The tall light fixture is dressed with a real wax candle, and has new wiring with single lights; it is further embellished with a convenient on and off foot switch. The free standing Louis XIII style floor lamp with tray table is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich walnut patina. Place this elegant and practical fixture next to your favorite armchair, and use the attached table to rest your coffee or tea cup! Shade not included. Measures: 19.5" diameter 78" height.
