This antique carved onyx and brass hall tree was crafted in France, circa 1920. Standing on an intricate triangular molded base ending with paw feet, the tall rack features a square central marble stem decorated with dolphin-form umbrella or belt hooks at center join. The top embellished with a decorative central finial, is dressed with a swivel four scrolled shell form arms terminating in double hat and coat hooks and embellished with circular marble ends. The elegant halltree is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich patinated gilt brass finish. Place this practical and useful free standing rack in an entry way or use it in a master bathroom to hang jackets, pants or belts! Measures: 15" W x 15" D x 66.75" H.
