Bring warmth and subtle texture to a powder room, bedroom, or gallery wall with this charming antique French faux bamboo mirror. Crafted in France circa 1920, the rectangular frame is constructed of finely turned walnut carved to imitate bamboo canes, complete with stylized nodes and distinctive angled corner finials.

The elegant frame showcases crisp lathe work throughout and is dressed in a rich walnut patina that enhances the naturalistic bamboo effect. Compact yet visually striking, the mirror offers versatile placement possibilities and may be displayed vertically or horizontally depending on preference. The piece retains its original mercury mirror plate with light age-appropriate spotting, adding authenticity and antique character.

The back retains its original wood panel and hanging wire for easy installation. This antique wall mirror is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a beautiful time-softened finish with minor wear consistent with its age.
