This antique carved brass hall tree was crafted in France, circa 1920. Standing on an intricate tri-partite scrolled dolphin form base attached with circular bottom, the tall rack features a turned spiral central stem decorated with medial foliage mount. The top embellished with a decorative central vasiform finial, is dressed with a swivel four scrolled dolphin form arms terminating in double hat and coat hooks. The elegant halltree is in excellent condition with a rich patinated gilt brass finish. Place this practical and useful free standing rack in an entry way or use it in a master bathroom to hang jackets, pants or belts! Measures: 17.5" W x 17.5" D x 70" H.
