Decorate a hall way or powder room with this charming antique spindle-turned wooden mirror. Crafted in France circa 1920, the wall decor is characterized by its simple yet elegant craftsmanship. The frame features finely hand turned wooden spindles at the corners and along the edges, creating a balanced, symmetrical structure. The spindles highlight the artisan's skill, with their clean lines and precise proportions. The frame is dressed with the original mercury glass with some evidence of age. The wall mirror is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich silvered patinated painted finish. The piece has a timeless appeal, blending seamlessly into both traditional and modern interiors; versatile, it could be hang horizontally or vertically. 24.5"W x 33.5"H
